

Software Testers

Join us... we are a culturally diverse global company looking for a Software Tester with strong customer facing skills.

Glimpse of Responsibilities and Abilities

Work with developers to cover testing of new functionality and new user interfaces
Report on defects and follow up to closure

Requirements

- Basic technical education
- Ability to work on a team
- Ability to work with parallel assignments
- Some experience with testing activities
- Ability to perform ad hoc test design and test execution
- Ability to act on your own initiative and be a self starter.
- Excellent written and oral communication skills, a must in both English and Spanish
- Experience of Software Testing best practices, with testing methodologies, black/white box testing etc
- Ability to handle multiple concurrent projects.
- Ability to provide technical input to test project planning, test development and test execution tasks.
- Ability to analyse results/problems on test projects and recommend appropriate action to ensure product quality.
- Status reporting, including bug trends and status analysis.
- Experience of multiple operating systems: Windows, Unix, Linux etc

Preferences

- Experience working with client/server paradigms and frontend/backend systems
- Experience in working with Oracle databases
- Familiar with testing methodologies, black/white box testing
- Experience in the mobile or wireless sectors.
- Experience working on production environments
- Experience with defect tracking system, HP Quality Center etc.
- Track record of delivering product to tight and pressurised deadlines.
- Understanding of Internet software (client/server, HTML, XML, Java)
- At least 1 year full lifecycle Testing experience (from specifications to deployment and on-going support) in a software development environment.
- Proven track record of working and delivering to tight deadlines. At least 1 year Stylesheet testing experience

Contact: Maya.Weintraub@amdocs.com